CONTRACTED INDEPENDENT SHORE EXCURSION OPERATOR'S DIVING POLICY

Due to the nature and level of physical exertion involved in diving excursions, these excursions may not be appropriate for individuals with certain medical conditions such as asthma, heart conditions, high blood pressure or serious diabetes. Contracted Independent Shore Excursion Operators require that all guests be able to participate safely in the shore excursion. If you have any medical condition that may affect your ability to participate safely in the diving excursion, please contact the Shore Excursion Manager prior to booking your excursion. This applies to scuba diving, snuba, power snorkel, underwater scooter and sea trek excursions.

WEATHER

Sometimes the weather does not realize that our guests are on vacation and subsequently forgets to cooperate. It should be noted that excursions operate rain or shine. At times for safety reasons, contracted Independent Shore Excursion Operators will cancel particular excursions due to inclement weather conditions. In this instance, refunds will be made for guests holding tickets on a cancelled excursion and all efforts will be made to accommodate guests on an alternative excursion.

RESPONSIBILITY

Carnival is not responsible for any losses, injuries, or claims whatsoever arising from, connected with, or related to any activities engaged in by guests while off Carnival's vessels or tenders in any port of call. This includes shore excursions, whether the tickets for the excursions are sold on board the vessel or ashore by third parties. Guests engage in all such activities off the vessel at their own risk. All shore excursions, including any related transportation, are operated by independent contractors and Carnival neither supervises nor controls their actions, nor makes any representation either express or implied as to their suitability. Carnival sells tickets for all excursions as a convenience to guests only. Contracted Independent Shore Excursion Operators, transportation providers, and their employees are neither agents nor employees of Carnival, notwithstanding their use of any signage or clothing which may contain the name "Carnival" or other related trade names or logos. It is understood and agreed that Carnival assumes no responsibility for, nor guarantees performance of and in no event shall be liable for, any loss, damage, injury, or death in connection with said excursions or transportation. Please refer to your ticket contract for further information regarding your rights and obligations as well as those of Carnival.

ENSENADA FUN ASHORE

ENSENADA FUN FACT

- Ensenada was in Spanish possession until 1822, the year after Mexico gained its independence. In 1887 the peninsula was divided into two federal districts; the first capital of northern Baja California was at Ensenada. The district was redesignated as a federal territory in 1931 and became a state in 1952. The name was changed to Baja California Norte.
